

LOST: Somewhere in this city, a purse, containing $75.00 in currency. Liberal reward if returned to XXZ, this office.

Ads, similar to the one above, appear in most every paper. Yet some people will continue to carry large sums around. Why not carry a check book, and if you lose it there is no great loss; that's the only practical way to carry money.

Start a checking account today with us, and pay by check. You surely know that we have a safe place to keep your money.

Don't wait 'till you have lost a wallet to start your account, but put it in this bank tomorrow morning.

THE First National Bank of Nogales, NOGALES, ARIZONA

REFRIGERATORS

We have just received a big shipment of "RHINELANDER" Refrigerators. It is known as the "great one-piece stone lined and the only perfect SANITARY refrigerator" on the market today.

All sizes await your selection. Prices range from $7.50 TO $60.00

To further call your attention to this special line we will quote you SPECIAL PRICES all this month.

GEO. B. MARSH, Inc.

W. C. PAGE, Manager

J. D. Halstead Lumber Co.

We handle a complete line of Lumber, Sash Doors, Lime, Cement, Douglas Plaster, Corrugated Iron, Builders' Hardware, in fact everything to build with.

J. D. Halstead Lumber Co.,

Successors to Nogales Lumber Co.

THE INTERNATIONAL DRUG STORE,

Phone 671 Morley Avenue P. O. Box C.
NOGALES, - - - ARIZONA.

To the Public:

We offer exceptionally liberal inducements to those who like to do their trading at or near home and avoid delays.

Best Quality, New and Selected Stock, the largest on the border, Purest Drugs most efficient clerks and prompt personal attention to all phone, mail and express orders.

YOUR MONEY BACK IF NOT SATISFIED.

A trial solicited from new customers as we are able to hold all our old patrons with above tactics in our business.

Respectfully,

THE INTERNATIONAL DRUG STORE

LOCAL NEWS.

Jack Lester has returned from a successful business visit in the east.

State Senator Harry J. Karns returned Thursday from a successful business visit to California.

W. M. Murphy, Harshaw mining man, is very ill, at the Sisters' Hospital.

I. E. Bowers arrived from his ranch near Noria, Sonora. Reports feed plentiful and cattle fat in his section.

L. B. Fleischer was here a couple of days this week from Tucson, in the interest of his big wholesale house.

Miss Fannie Ford, sister of Mrs. T. P. Thompson, has gone to California to spend the remainder of the summer.

Sheriff McKnight is making the bootleggers hard to catch. Several places have been raided this week, and a number of arrests were made.

A. M. Conard, accompanied by Mrs. Conard and thachildren is enjoying his summer vacation at Pine Crest, California, in the San Bernardino mountains.

Tom Heady, manager of the San Rafael ranch, was here Tuesday from Lochiel, on business. Said the ranch never looked finer; cattle are in prime condition.

Ralph O'Neill, manager of Kempton & O'Neill, local assayers and ore buyers, is back from El Paso, where he accompanied a shipment of several carloads of ore.

Next Monday night there will be a grand ball at the Auditorium in honor of Labor Day. The ball is being given as a benefit for the Sacred Heart school of Nogales.

W. F. Dwyer, popular traveling auditor of the Southern Pacific, with headquarters at Tucson, was a visitor in Nogales one day this week, on business for his company.

F. I. R. Moore, chief clerk R. M. S., with headquarters at Los Angeles, arrived in the city Thursday, on official business connected with the handling of the soldiers' mail.

Mrs. Carlos Ruppelius, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Purdy, was here Thursday from the Richard Brady ranch near Oracle, of which her husband is the general manager.

Yesterday the Second Connecticut regiment departed for their long hike to Fort Huachuca, where they will relieve the First Connecticut, now doing target practice at that place.

Nogales' splendid public schools will open Monday, September 18th, at which time our handsome new high school building, one of the finest in the state, will also be completed.

Charley Bower, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bower, of Los Coches, near Canille, has this week been a visitor in Nogales, at the home of his friends, Mr. and Mrs. Dillon Moore.

Wednesday Superintendent J. W. Fitzgerald of the Southern Pacific, accompanied by Division Engineer J. D. Mathews, was here on an inspection trip of the Nogales-Tucson branch.

E. E. Bethell manager of the Washington Trading Company's big store at Patagonia, was a business visitor at the county seat Thursday. He reported business booming at Patagonia.

District Manager Burgess of the Mountain States Telephone & Telegraph Company, spent Wednesday in Nogales, on company business. Manager Burgess makes his headquarters in Tucson.

Miss Josephine Chenoweth and sister Emma, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chenoweth, returned home last Wednesday from a delightful visit in Los Angeles with relatives and friends.

O. K. Franklin, local mining man, is arranging to resume active operations at his mines located in Sonora, a short distance south of the line. Shipments of ore will be made to the Douglas smelter.

Mrs. Vic Condron and Master Clifford arrived yesterday from the coast, to spend some time here with Mr. Condron, popular representative of the Standard Oil Co. They are guests at the Montezuma.

There is nation-wide rejoicing today over the prospects for advertising the greatest railway strike the world has ever seen. The American Congress can at all times be depended upon to do the right thing at the right time.

Master Howard O'Neill, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. O'Neill, has returned from his summer's vacation on the Pacific coast.

George A. Lonsberry, the mining engineer, is back from a visit to some mines in Santa Cruz county, on which he made report for eastern capitalists.

John Douglas, the Patagonia bootlegger, who was arrested by Sheriff McKnight and his deputies last week, pled guilty in Judge O'Connor's court and was fined $200 and ten days in the county jail.

Miss Margaret Wise and her cousin, Miss Mary Sykes, returned Thursday from a delightful summer's outing at Santa Monica, California, where they were chaperoned by Mrs. J. E. Wise, mother of Miss Wise.

George Januel, the expert German barber, on Morley Ave., in Montezuma building, guarantees his work, and respectfully invites you to give him a trial. Everything neat and clean. Hair Cutting a specialty. adv.

Sunday H. J. Temple, general superintendent of the Southern Pacific of Mexico, returned from Tucson, and Monday continued on south to Empalme, his headquarters in Mexico. Mr. Temple traveled in his private car Tepic.

Colonel Robert Cunningham, agent of the United States Graphite Company, is sojourning in Nogales, having pleasant apartments at the Brickwood Hotel. When in Sonora, Colonel Bob makes his headquarters at Torres.

Leslie Hardy, former assistant attorney general, now associate counsel in the office of Phelps-Dodge attorneys at Bisbee, was a visitor in Nogales last Sunday a few hours, at the home of his parents, Collector and Mrs. C. E. Hardy.

WANTED: YOUNG MEN WITH NERVE. Good pay, short hours, opportunity for travel, advancement; normal physique, good references required. Aviation Dept., THE O'CONNOR CORPORATION, 6309 S. Eggleston, CHICAGO, ILL. adv.

Frank N. Cox, the well known experienced mine contractor, who is now operating over in the Washington district, was a visitor in the city several days this week meeting old-time friends, all of whom join in wishing Frank will make a fortune.

Frank Powers, owner of the famous World's Fair silver bonanza at Harshaw, accompanied by Mrs. Powers, came down from the mines Monday. The World Fair has been bounteous with its gifts to the Powers family, who for many years have been high and dry on Easy street.

This week Mr. and Mrs. A. Carpena, of this city, have been at Matanzas, Cuba, enjoying the wonderful caves and other interesting sights. They are on their way to New York City, where Mr. Carpena will purchase goods for his big haberdashry on Morley avenue.

Vic Condron, field agent for the Standard Oil Co., who has been spending some time here recently, left for Phoenix last Thursday morning, making the cross-country trip by automobile. Mr. Condron has the contract for supplying the U. S. army stationed here with oil.

Phil Baldwin, for a long time connected with the local U. S. customs force, has been promoted to a position in the immigration service, and Thursday departed for El Paso, to report for duty. Phil's many friends here join in wishing him all sorts of good luck, in his new position.

According to an opinion just handed down by Attorney General Wiley Jones, the Arizona militia boys now at the border and out of their own counties may vote at the coming fall elections providing they carry out the requirements of the civil code relating to change of registration.

P. J. McCarty, of Canille, has been a county seat visitor this week several days, from McCarty ranch, where some of the finest fruit in the state is raised. The McCarty apples are famous for their beauty and flavor. They always bring the highest market price, here and elsewhere.

Elgin Holt, the mining man, who for some time past has been sojourning in Nogales, has returned to Sonora, where will examine and report on mining property for eastern capitalists, who are again looking towards the great mining regions of our southern sister, with a view of investing.

The Nogales Cafe is the name of the new restaurant soon to be opened in Miss Mamie Donahue's new brick building on Morley avenue, by Chris Kerson, proprietor of the Nogales Pool Hall.

The social party at the Methodist church last Tuesday evening was a very enjoyable and successful affair. The attendance was large and everybody had a good time. The money realized is for the benefit of the church.

George H. Francis, candidate for the Democratic nomination for the office of county treasurer, who for the past month has been assisting in the International Drug store, has resigned his position, and has gone to the country to make an active campaign for the office to which he aspires.

John Higginbotham, "Laird of Carbo," has returned from Santa Catalina Island, where he and his family spent several months at their summer home. From here the Laird and his young son, Lawrence, went to Carbo, where important business connected with his mining interests demands his personal attention.

Don J. Estrada Berg, private secretary of Don Ignacio Bonillas, of General Carranza's cabinet, recently appointed member of the Mexican commission, who has been visiting in Nogales, left Thursday for Washington, D. C., to join Don Ignacio, who with his family is now at the capital city. The conference will be held at Portsmouth.

City Councilman E. K. Cumming, who for the past month has been in the east on Missouri State Life Insurance business, returned home Tuesday. Of all the large cities visited, he says Detroit, Michigan, is the best. During Mr. Cumming's absence from the city, his big insurance business has been in the capable hands of Mr. Fred Hannan.

After a pleasant cross-country trip to Mesa, where Mr. Bowman had gone to inspect his big herd of thoroughbred milk cows, W. G. Bowman accompanied by Mrs. Bowman, the Misses Tillie and Edna, and little Georgia, returned home Tuesday. They were loud in their praise of the beautiful Salt River valley, which at this season of the year cannot be surpassed anywhere.

The transfer of the Fifth California Infantry, from here to Sacramento, upon orders received from General Funston, is deeply regretted by everybody in Nogales, and hopes are entertained that after the threatened railway strike trouble is over, the Fifth will return to Nogales. Officers and men of the Fifth California, are a fine bunch. They will be missed.

Tomorrow E. R. Pardum, of the law firm of Duty & Pardum, will leave cross-country for Phoenix, where he goes in the interest of Judge Frank J. Duffy's candidacy for supreme judge. Mr. Pardum and other friends of "Square Deal Duffy," feel confident he will be successful in his race for the nomination on September 12th, after which Judge Duffy will have things pretty well his own way.

Wednesday the Second Idaho Infantry returned from Fort Huachuca, where they spent fifteen days at target practice on the government range. The Idaho boys are a husky bunch of red-blooded Americans. They made the long hike from the fort to Nogales without the least bit of trouble, and arrived at camp feeling fine. They certainly look it. Colonel Edelbluth has cause to feel proud of his regiment.

Jake Redwine, ex locomotive engineer, who has retired from the strenuous, nerve-wrecking game, to assume the management of the Redwine ranch between Tubac and Chavez, in this county, was a visitor in the city yesterday. Mr. Redwine says he believes President Wilson to be the greatest living American, and is willing to gamble he'll be re-elected by the greatest majority ever received by any president of the United States.

Wednesday night orders for the return to their state mobilization camps of 15,000 national guardsmen now on the Mexican border were issued by the war department in Washington, and General Funston was directed to return three regiments from New York, two from New Jersey, two from Illinois, two from Missouri, and one each from California, Oregon, Washington and Louisiana. The Fifth California, stationed at Nogales, has been sent to Sacramento. Left here late last night.

Miss Jewell Smith, lovely daughter of Judge and Mrs. W. H. Smith, returned home the forepart of the week from a delightful visit with relatives at San Antonio, Texas. She was accompanied by Miss Maley, a sister of her mother and Roy Maley, with whom Miss Maley will enjoy a visit.

The social dance given last Saturday night at Fruitland Hall, near Sonoita, was a most enjoyable affair, a large number of young people from Nogales being in attendance. Charley Fowler was floor manager and there was something doing every minute. Everybody from Nogales reports having had a fine time, thanks to the hospitable people of the Elgin-Sonoita country, where the larch string is always out.

C. H. Holler has returned from an extended business and pleasure trip to points in the east, including Michigan, New York and Pennsylvania. He also spent a day at the national capital. In little old New York, Mr. Holler met Jack McVey, the well known Ariavaca cattle man, who is east on a combined business and pleasure visit. Mrs. Sofia Holler, who accompanied her son east, will spend several months with relatives.

Hon. Frank E. Curley, candidate for the Democratic nomination of attorney general, was a busy visitor in the city Thursday, from Tucson, his home. Mr. Curley has just returned from a campaign trip in the northern part of the state, where he says the weather was extremely cold, especially at night. The gentleman is an experienced lawyer and a gifted orator, besides being a consistent Democrat. If nominated by the Democrats on September 12th, he will be elected by a handsome majority November 7th.

Judge Frank J. Duffy, Democratic candidate for the state supreme court, is campaigning in the Salt River valley, where he will probably remain until after the primaries. Every Democrat in Santa Cruz county should cast his vote at the primary election for "Square Deal Frank Duffy," who for many years has made this county his home. It is safe to say that during the years he has resided in Santa Cruz county, Frank Duffy has done more favors for citizens of this county, without compensation, than any other man here. He deserves the united support of his party at the primary election, and should receive it.

Dave Loeb, proprietor of The Popular haberdashry on south Morley avenue, returned home last Monday from an extended business visit to eastern markets to purchase the latest in goods for men. Upon his return home he found Manager Hart busy superintending the remodeling of The Popular, which as a result has been greatly improved in appearance. Instead of two entrances, there is now but one, in the center of the big store. On each side of the big door are large, handsome show-windows which make The Popular one of the most attractive stores in the city. Other needed improvements have been made in the interior for the comfort and convenience of employees and patrons.

V. F. Christman, special agent for the Santa Cruz County Fair Association, has this week been a county seat visitor, arranging for finances for the coming county fair to be held October 5th, 6th and 7th, at the Sonoita fair grounds. This year it will be necessary to raise in the neighborhood of $1800, to be expended for paying deficit on last year's fair, needed improvements on buildings and grounds; also for purses for automobile races, horse races, etc., etc., which Mr. Christman and the local committee, appointed by the Chamber of Commerce of Nogales, expect to accomplish without trouble, right here in Nogales. Four hundred dollars will be set aside for paying premiums on farm products, live stock and poultry.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Hall's Catarrh Cure has been taken by catarrh sufferers for the past thirty-five years, and has become known as the most reliable remedy for Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure acts thru the Blood on the Mucous surfaces, expelling the Poison from the Blood and healing the diseased portions. After you have taken Hall's Catarrh Cure for a short time you will see a great improvement in your general health. Start taking Hall's Catarrh Cure at once and get rid of catarrh. Send for testimonials, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by all Druggists, 75c.